AmeriLife Honors Mutual of Omaha As First Inductee in Premier Carrier Program

Program Strengthens Relationships Between Distribution Company and Top-Tier Carriers

Clearwater, Fla. – AmeriLife Group, LLC (“AmeriLife”), a national leader in developing, marketing and distributing annuity, asset management, life and health insurance solutions, recently recognized its long-standing, strategic relationship with Mutual of Omaha by naming the Nebraska-based insurance company as the first inductee to AmeriLife’s newly established Premier Carrier Program.

Scott L. Perry, AmeriLife CEO, made the announcement on June 24 with Mutual of Omaha’s Chairman of the Board and CEO, James Blackledge, in attendance.

“As long-time partners, Mutual of Omaha and AmeriLife have developed an enduring and valuable relationship,” said Perry. “It’s not only based on our shared goals and philosophies, but also on doing the right thing for our customers and business partners.”

AmeriLife created the Premier Carrier Program as a distinct way to recognize top-tier carriers with historic and strategic affiliations. The program gives those organizations access to AmeriLife marketing and distribution efforts along with exclusive involvement in AmeriLife-sponsored events, product development opportunities, marketer-and agent-training programs and semi-annual business meetings.

In addition, AmeriLife will honor premier carriers with a financial contribution to a charity of their choice.
